Did you know that CAFOD is standing in solidarity with the 16 days of Activism Against Gender Violence campaign, which runs worldwide until 10th December? CAFOD has long since worked to achieve peace, security and equality across the world. Alongside our partners, we address gender violence in many ways, be it providing medical help and counselling for survivors of violence, or legal and practical support to ensure every person can live with dignity and security. And we're speaking out, to raise awareness and change attitudes to gender violence.
