Did you know .....1st December was World AIDS Day? CAFOD believes that a full and effective response to HIV must include prevention of new infections, care for those affected by it, and support for those working to change systems negatively affecting people with, or at risk from, HIV. With the full support of the Catholic Church, we are meeting the challenges of HIV and AIDS. Given the scale and urgency of the problem, this is one of our top priority areas of work.
