Did you know CAFOD is part of the global Caritas family? The coalition of 165 Catholic aid organisations from around the world forms one of the largest humanitarian and development networks in existence. The Caritas network covers 200 countries and celebrates its 60th birthday this year. Working at the heart of the Catholic Church as an agent of change, Caritas is committed to achieving zero poverty. CAFOD, together with your support, continues to be a strong element in this global network.
