Did you know CAFOD is one of only a handful of international charities working in Eritrea? Women are left heading the household for long periods as the men are drafted into the army. Eritrea is beset by frequent droughts and imports account for 88% of its food and all its fuel. When food is available, it is often too expensive causing critical outbreaks of hunger and malnutrition. Thanks to your support CAFOD is providing emergency food rations to many, including malnourished children, expectant mothers and young families.

Collection Sunday: 4th September: £260.10 Catholic Trust: £4.00.
