Did you know..... Cafod is an integral part of the Catholic Church? Our supporters are mainly from the Catholic community and our mandate comes from the Bishop's Conference of England and Wales. As part of the Catholic community, we work in four key ways: helping people overseas to make a living; disaster and emergency response; campaigning and advocacy both here and overseas; and education of all in the UK. CAFOD believe we have a clear duty actively to share resources and strive for justice for our brothers and sisters. Neutrality is not enough.
