Did you knowCAFOD is taking early action to lessen the effects of looming food crisis in Niger? After a poor harvest, food prices are alarmingly high, and millions of people are struggling to afford enough to eat. CAFOD and partner CADEV Niger are already running feeding centres in Niger, and will scale up to the response in the coming weeks. Our partners are planning to buy grain and sell it at subsidised prices, give farmers seeds, and pay people with money or with food to work on project that benefit their communities.

Collection 22nd January: £326.14

CAFOD: £386.65 - (Current total: £423.29)

Attendance: 75
