Did you know...the Catholic Church will play a vital role in responding to the devastation caused by Typhoon Halyan? As CAFOD launched an urgent appeal for funds to support the work of its church partners in the Philippines, CAFOD Director Chris Bain said "The best way we can all help is by supporting the charities and church groups who are already operating in the worse hit areas, responding to their immediate needs for food, water and shelter, beginning the hard work of rebuilding the communities that have lost everything, and keeping them constantly in our prayers. Together, we can bring new hope to those who today face utter desolation.

(CAFOD is appealing as part of a national response by the Disaster Emergency Committee (DEC). In the unlikely event of income exceeding need for this appeal additional money will be allocated to other urgent emergencies.)
