You may have noticed from your reading that we are invited to respond to a questionnaire sent to the Bishops. You may read the full text if you take one of the copies of The Universe from the porch. It is very much in the Vatican Curia mode. I have made a simplified version. See the notice board. If anyone wishes to discuss this with the purpose of sending our views to the Diocese - please mention it.

This Sunday - collection for Diocesan Youth Services.

Next Sunday - Poor Missions of the Diocese

Did you know...CAFOD has given an initial £250,000 to provide vital humanitarian aid to survivors of Typhoon Haiyan? CAFOD's local Caritas church partners are reaching many of the areas that others cannot; providing immediate needs for food, clean water, shelter, medical supplies and sanitation. Fr Alex Opiniano of Tacloban says, "The Church is a beacon amongst the broken ruins of our homes. We learn every day from visitors about the generosity, prayers and concern coming from the rest of the world, especially from Catholics across the UK. You are all far away yet you are close to us, giving us courage, inspiration and hope."

DIARY DATE Thursday 5th December. Parish Annual Christmas Dinner, Singleton Lodge 7 for 7.30 pm

Collection: Sunday: 17th November £310.55. CAFOD £30.00 (current total: £65.41).
