Next Sunday is the Solemnity of Corpus Christi

Next Saturday, immediately after Mass, we have an opportunity of learning about the work we support through the APF. The priest who made the recent Red Box appeal will illustrate his talk with slides. Adjust your Saturday time-table.

See the substitute poster concerning the Quiet Day at Hynning. The subject of the talks is now "Prayer and Healing".

See also poster of Diocesan Pilgrimage to Fernyhalgh - and please note in your diaries that a Quiet Day has been arranged there for us on Wednesday, July 23rd.

Did you know that CAFOD is a member of the 'We will Speak Out' Coalition - a group of Christian organisations who organised a Global Summit to End Sexual Violence in Conflict? It took place in London last week, with over 100 countries, 900 experts, survivors, Faith leaders, and International organisations from across the world sharing a commitment to end sexual violence in conflict. CAFOD was present through partner Therese Mapenzi from the Democratic Republic of Congo, who addressed the summit telling of her work to help rape survivors to overcome the trauma of their experiences.

Collection Sunday 8th June: £263.60 Cafod £10 - (Current Total: £173.67)
