Saturday, May 31st, is the fortieth anniversary of Mass first being celebrated in this church. We shall raise a glass on the Sunday following.

We have been asked to make available Bishop Kenny's statement on the European elections. You may take a copy from the porch. Bishop Kenny (Birmingham) is our representative on the Committee of European Bishops.

Did you know CAFOD has joined with Muslim aid agencies to warn that more than half the population of the Central African Republic risk going hungry as a result of instability and violence across the country? CAFOD, Islamic Relief, Muslim Aid and the Muslim Charities Forum have launched a joint mission in the country to help those directly affected by the crisis. By working together as Catholic and Muslim charities, we can be of immediate practical help and also send out a strong message of unity and hope.
