Did you know ....the fighting in South Sudan has created a humanitarian emergency? The violence has forced more than 500,000 people from their homes, CAFOD welcomes the ceasefire agreed on 23rd January, but the situation remains tense. In Juba, South Sudan's capital, CAFOD is working with the Sacred Heart Sisters Congregation to ensure that people sheltering in St Theresa's Cathedral compound have medicine, food and household items. The Sisters have also helped to support mothers giving birth over the Christmas period.

Collection Sunday January 26th: £336.54. Cafod: Thanks to a private donation of £310 we have been able to send a cheque for £600, leaving us with £5.73 in the kitty. Attendance: 62
