Did you know ..... 4 years on from the start of the conflict in Syria, CAFOD, as part of #WithSyria - a global coalition of 130 aid agencies/civil society groups - is calling for more to be done to stop the conflict and to get humanitarian aid to communities in need? Over 12.2 million people have been forced to flee their homes. CAFOD is providing communities with vital food, shelter, clean water and sanitation. Some of our partners are working at great risk to their own safety. CAFOD calls on world leaders to bring this devastating conflict to an end.
